CMSA's mission is to promote and nurture the art of classical mandolin playing. We welcome players of all mandolin family instruments, classical guitarists, other musicians, and music lovers. Our members have varied musical backgrounds, interests, and playing abilities from beginner to professional. Interest in classical mandolin has grown as people are attracted to the beauty of its sound and the joy of making music together.

While there were other organizations promoting the mandolin before CMSA, we are the only group currently in North America dedicated to classical mandolin and its rich tradition. Formed in 1986 by Norman Levine, CMSA is a vibrant community whose activities include the annual convention; publishing a quarterly newsletter; social media; education, resources, and networking for existing and new ensembles; grants to support our mission; and scholarships for students to attend the convention. Our sister organizations around the world include the Federation of Australasian Mandolin Ensembles, British BMG Federation, Bund Deutscher Zupfmusiker, European Guitar and Mandolin Association, Federazione Mandolinistica Italiana, and the Japan Mandolin Union.

Our annual convention is hosted by member orchestras in a different location in North America each autumn.

CMSA has several hundred members throughout the US, Canada, and other countries. Many perform in the 30+ mandolin groups listed in our directory of ensembles.

Message from the President

Welcome to the mid-western hospitality of Kalamazoo, where the Kalamazoo Mandolin & Guitar Orchestra has opened its doors to mandolin enthusiasts from around the world for the 36th annual convention of the Classical Mandolin Society of America. The dedicated Host Committee, headed up by Erik Larson and Vivian Abramowitz, possesses a wealth of expertise in the planning and execution of large events. For the past 12 months they have worked hard to bring you a unique cultural experience. As you go about the convention this week, please be sure to thank the wonderful people who did the “work on the ground”.

The C.M.S.A. annual convention is the largest gathering in North America of mandolinists playing in the classical style. The many orchestras and ensembles found across North America are the lifeblood of C.M.S.A. Keeping those groups strong is a priority. To inspire, and to strengthen different aspects of our ensemble playing, we bring in guest artists who are some of the best in the mandolin world today. In addition to mandolin, this year’s convention makes a point of investing in the areas of guitar, octave mandolin and mandocello. Whether you’re a newcomer, a student on a scholarship or a regular attendee, we hope you take advantage of the many opportunities to learn and to play, to perform and to grow as a musician.

The En Masse Orchestra is the bread and butter of our annual conventions, and if you’re attending your first convention this year, you will discover what an inspiring event it is! The Open Mic event, also a staple at our conventions, involves members playing for members, both pre-planned and spontaneous. The diversity of the performances is breath-taking. To quote Dr. Jim Bates, Open Mic is where C.M.S.A. ‘bears its heart and soul’. And this year’s array of Workshop presenters and topics is one of the best ever, making it difficult to choose between concurrent sessions.

Behind the scenes at every C.M.S.A. convention is a hard-working team of Board Members and volunteers who perform administrative and support jobs throughout the year, as well as keeping The Mandolin Journal and our Website up-to-date and interesting to our members. There are always opportunities to get involved year-round, and if you are interested, please be sure to talk to us about volunteering. We will find a job you will love, and you will be appreciated!

It gives us great joy to see how music has the power to bring together a diverse group of people from around the world for a shared experience. Be sure to reach out and make some new friends this week. Have a great time playing, learning and exploring new ideas in Kalamazoo. We wish everyone a fantastic 2022 convention experience!

Susan McLaughlin
President, C.M.S.A.

The City of Kalamazoo, Michigan
Office of the Mayor

July 26, 2022

On behalf of the City of Kalamazoo, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you to the 36th annual convention of the Classical Mandolin Society of America. We are proud of Jackie Zito and the Kalamazoo Mandolin and Guitar Orchestra in organizing this event and for reviving the mandolin orchestra tradition in Kalamazoo. The City of Kalamazoo is the home of The Kalamazoo Promise (www.kalamazoopromise.com) the city of The Foundation for Excellence (www.kalamazoocity.org/ffe) the city of promise and a jewel of Michigan.

You will find our great city to be warm and friendly. Our vibrant downtown area is filled with unique restaurants, boutique retail stores, coffee shops, pubs and microbreweries, and art galleries. The Kalamazoo Public Library, the Kalamazoo Valley Museum, and the Kalamazoo Institute of Arts are within easy walking distance of the downtown district.

As mayor, I am pleased that you have decided to host your convention in Kalamazoo. Your organization could not have selected a better place to host your event.

Please accept my best wishes for a fun and entertaining event and for more events like this in the years to come.

David F. Anderson, Mayor

Welcome to Kalamazoo!

The Kalamazoo Mandolin and Guitar Orchestra is excited to welcome you to Kalamazoo in 2022! Who knew, back in 2019 when we last were together in Normal, Illinois, that life would not be “normal” for some years to come. “Convention In The Clouds” became the new normal for those unprecedented pandemic years. But now, as we slowly make our way back to in-person gatherings, we are so glad that you will be here with us.

“Yes, There Really Is A Kalamazoo.” Kalamazoo has had many identities and slogans over the years. Our rich soil helped us become the Celery City back in the 1900s; the slogan “In Kalamazoo, We Do” complete with a celery stalk, still has us wondering what that was all about. We were the home of the now defunct but still iconic Checker Cabs. The Kalamazoo Stove Company promised “A Kalamazoo Direct To You.” Perhaps you took a ride on a sled made by the Kalamazoo Sled Company, or caught a fish using a rod and reel from The Shakespeare Company. And in 1959, we became “The Mall City” when we opened the very first pedestrian mall in the United States.

Of course, we’re most enthused that Kalamazoo is the “Birthplace Of The Modern Mandolin”, as the Gibson Mandolin and Guitar Manufacturing Company started right here, not far from where you’re staying. Join us on Wednesday evening for the Welcome Party, enjoy some complimentary appetizers, have a drink from the cash bar, and...take a selfie with our very special guest, in town just to see you.

As always, the Classical Mandolin Society of America has brought in virtuoso guest artists from around the world, and put together a full slate of incredible workshops, concerts, and the ever-popular cherry on the convention sundae, the en masse orchestra concert. And we have a few surprises up our sleeves as well! Still, we hope you’ll find time in your busy week to wander the city a bit, get a coffee from one of our local shops and roasters, stop in at Bell’s Brewery for a Two-Hearted Ale, or enjoy a to-go lunch in nearby Bronson Park. The friendly folks at the Information Desk will have dining and activity guides with maps; they’ll be happy to help get you where you’d like to go.

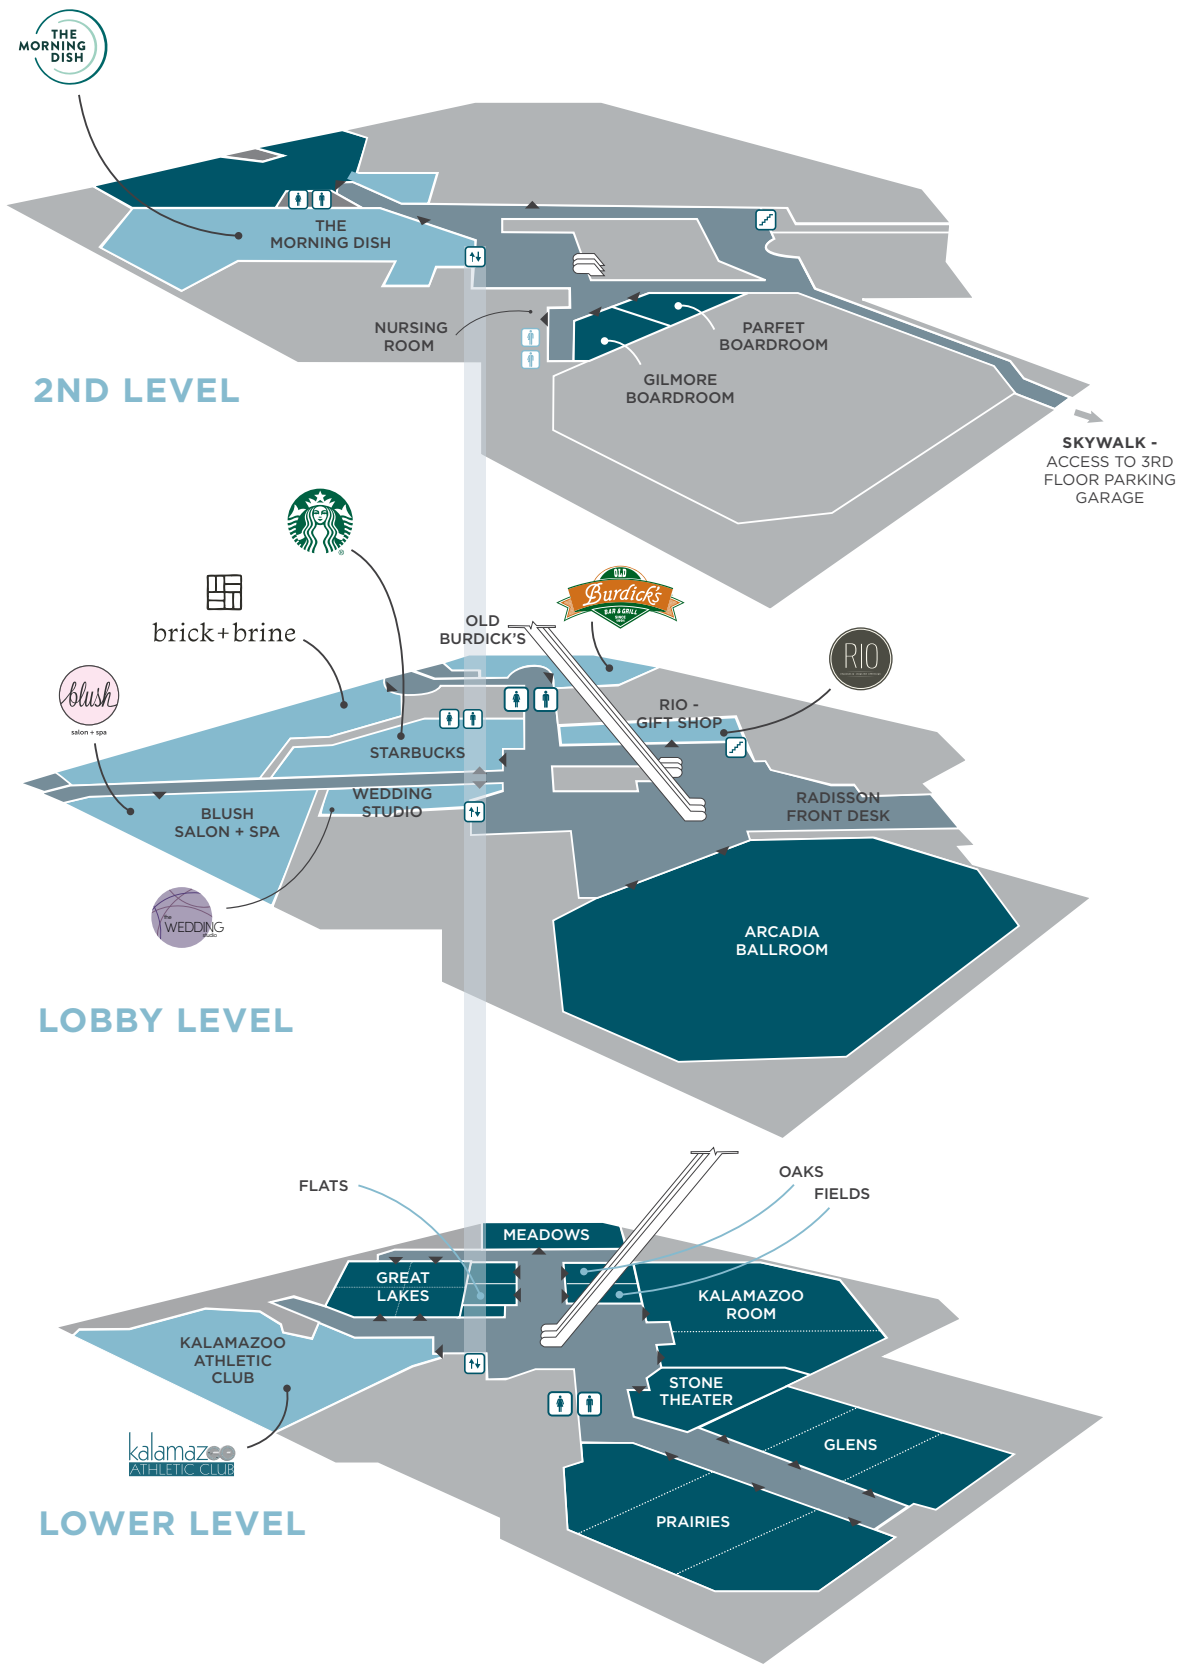

Enjoy your week, make new friends, and welcome to Kalamazoo!

Artists and Workshop Presenters

Ricardo Sandoval, one of the world's leading classical mandolinists, was born in Chile. He received his musical training in Venezuela (IUDEM, the University of Music in Caracas), subsequently moving to Europe to continue his studies at the Hochschule für Musik Köln. He currently is based in Metz, France.

Sandoval has had enormous success worldwide with his many compositions, which incorporate Latin American rhythms, harmonies, and melodies seamlessly and deftly, appealing to the audience and player alike. He is also a spectacular performer of iconic Latin American works, such as Radames Gnattali's "Suite Retratos" for solo mandolin and orchestra (originally written for Jabob de Bando-lim) while excelling at traditional mandolin repertoire such as Calace or Vivaldi. He has played in many different ensembles, such as the

Ricardo Sandoval Trio and 4tet, the 2+2 Quartet, and the French mandolin orchestra, AICOPI, which he directs. He is a passionate advocate of Venezuelan music, and frequently performs on traditional Venezuelan plucked instruments. His compositions are published by AICOPI, Les Productions d'Oz, and Trekel. In 2021, Ricardo was inducted as a member of the CMSA Honorary Board of Directors. Visit Ricardo Sandoval's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/bandolasworld/>

Since childhood, Katherine Lasso has been nurtured by the Colombian musical tradition. She studied Colombian Andean bandola at the Luis A. Calvo Academy, an extension of the Francisco José de Caldas District University, with teacher Paulo Triviño. In Bogotá. In 2013, she won the "young performers of the Banco de la República de Colombia" contest, being selected "young performer" of bandola soloist and "young talent" of the French Alliance. The same year she was the winner of the ICE-TEX "Carolina Oramas" scholarship for young talented artists to study abroad.

In 2014 she began mandolin studies with maestro Juan Carlos Muñoz at the Esch-Sur-Alzette Conservatory in Luxembourg, where she obtained the first prize diploma of mandolin in July 2020. In September of the same year she began to study a Master in Music: Mandoline, à finalité didactic with Vincent Beer-Demander at the Royal Conservatory of Liège, Belgium.

As bandolist and mandolinist, she has had the opportunity to make music on important stages in Colombia, Argentina, France, Luxembourg, Germany, Switzerland, Spain, Corsica, Belarus and Japan. During her career as a mandolin player, she has participated in the most important plectrum festivals in Europe with the projects: Arekiye (Duo Sandoval-Lasso), Mandolin 2+2 Quartet, Fado- Mirian Rugeri, Ensemble à plectre d'Esch/Alzette, Ensemble of plucked strings of the Royal Conservatory of Liège and is the concertmaster of the French Orchestra of mandolins and guitars "Aicopi".

Katherine is currently a teacher of mandolin at the EMARI music school "Ecole de musique agréée et conservatoire de musique" in Metz, France, she is also a teacher at the mandolin nursery of the mandolinist circle of Tétange, Luxembourg and the Aicopi association, Moselle region, France.

One of Europe's rising stars on plucked strings, Florian Klaus Rumpf began studying mandolin at age 7. A graduate of the Wuppertal campus of Cologne University of Music and Dance, Florian's teachers include Valerij Kisseljow, Caterina Lichtenberg, and Silke Lisko. In 2011 Florian collaborated with Avi Avital, Mike Marshall and others in performances by the Ger Mandolin Orchestra in Warsaw, Poland. He performs frequently in Germany on baroque mandolin, modern mandolin, mandola (octave) and liuto cantabile, and is also sought after as a workshop presenter and teacher. He has recorded 4 CDs, including a first volume of two devoted to arrangements for mandolin of Bach's sonatas and partitas for solo violin. His latest CD "A Mandolin's Guide to Hamburg", released in May 2022, features compositions for mandolin, baroque mandolin, octave mandolin and liuto cantabile by Masataka Hori, Victor Kioulaphides, Chris Acquavella and others. Florian gave an engaging and very well-received online workshop at CMSA's recent "Convention in the Clouds, v. 2.0".

Discover more about Florian on his website at <https://www.fkrumpf.com/>

Matt Cosgrove has been playing the guitar since the summer of 1990. Matt's guitar playing has been nationally televised on the Rejoice Broadcast Network serving in both solo and accompaniment roles. Matt placed first in the annual commencement contest at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and performed for nearly 5,000 people watching live and by close circuit television in adjacent auditoriums. Recently, Matt has performed Twilight composed by Toru Takemitsu with the Kalamazoo Symphony in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Matt received a Bachelor of Arts in guitar performance from PCC. He also received a Master of Music in Guitar performance from the Florida State University. Matt's major teachers have included Bruce Holzman, Joe Stallings, Steven Walter, and George Yeatman. While at PCC, he studied chamber music with Daisy and Alberto Jaffe. He has also performed in the Master Classes of Juan Mercadel, Ricardo Cobo, David Tanenbaum, Stephen Robinson, Jorge Caballero, Douglas James, Lorenzo Micheli, Adam Holzman, Oscar Ghiglia, and Jeremy Jouve. Matt has taught at the college level since January 2000. He taught guitar, bowed string instruments, music theory, and advanced cello full-time at Pensacola Christian College until 2006. He has also taught at Pensacola Junior College, Grand Rapids Community College, and Cornerstone University. Matt moved to the Kalamazoo area in July of 2011 and is teaching at Kalamazoo College.

Christi-Anne Castro has been involved with Filipino rondalla for over 35 years as a performer, teacher, arranger, composer, music director, and consultant. She received her PhD in Ethnomusicology from UCLA, and her award-winning book on Filipino music, Musical Renderings of the Philippine Nation (Oxford University Press), was published in 2011. Currently, she is Associate Dean for Faculty Development and Global Engagement at the School of Music, Theatre & Dance at the University of Michigan as well as an associate professor in the Musicology Department.

Dr. Jim Bates is Director of Orchestral Activities at Otterbein University in Columbus, OH and serves as an assistant conductor for the Westerville Symphony (OH) and Columbus Symphony Youth Orchestras. Conducting duties in the department include leading the string orchestra and directing the early music ensemble. As a conductor and teacher, Jim is able to draw on considerable experience as an educator, performer, and historian. He has served as president of Kentucky ASTA and as string coordinator for the Kentucky Governor's School for the Arts. From 2010-2012 Dr. Bates chaired the Coda Bows for America Community Outreach Program for ASTA, and currently serves as president of the Ohio String Teacher's Association.

In addition to string education, he is very involved with the Classical Mandolin Society of America and period instrument performance. He is a member of the national Board of Directors of CMSA. Dr. Bates is music director of The Early Interval, Columbus' professional early music performance ensemble and serves on the board of directors for Early Music Columbus. He has degrees from the University of Louisville (B.M.E.), a Masters in double bass performance from Indiana University, where he studied bass with Lawrence Hurst and baroque performance with Stanley Ritchie, and a Ph.D. in Musicology from the University of Kentucky. He has two sons, Ethan and Gideon. In 2019 CMSA honored Jim Bates by appointing him to a five-year term as a CMSA non-Presidential Fellow.

The Kalamazoo Mandolin & Guitar Orchestra was founded in 2003 by Jackie Zito to revive Kalamazoo's rich mandolin orchestra tradition. The group is comprised of area musicians and is sponsored by Crescendo Academy of Music, a local non-profit music school. They enjoy performing a wide variety of musical styles and have performed in many settings including concert series, museums, libraries, wineries, and Kalamazoo art celebrations known as "Art Hops." They have commissioned pieces and have hosted several guest artists for concerts and workshops. Follow them on Facebook or visit www.kalmando.com

Joel R Hobbs is multi-instrumentalist and composer from Austin Texas. He was a founder of the Austin Mandolin Orchestra in 2004. He has written more than forty pieces—and arranged over a hundred—for mandolin ensembles. In 2015, he was Composer-in-Residence for the Classical Mandolin Society of America. He has produced and released five recordings of his work, which are available on Apple Music and other streaming services:

- Good Dogs Always Eat (2011) – jazzy tunes for mandolin
- Opus Twelve: New Music for Mandolin Ensembles (2014) – 21 original pieces
- Dubliners Blues (2015) – a small collection of folksy songs
- Vesper (2019) – Mandolin and Guitar Duets with Jonathan Rudie
- Woodwind Impressions (2022) – three suites for woodwind quintet

Joel's music is published through Hyoshi New Media, Inc. and many of his scores are commercially available at SheetmusicPlus.com Contact Joel and discover his latest adventures at <https://www.joelhobbs.com/>

Lou Chouinard attended his first CMSA convention in 2002 and has been hooked on classical mandolin ever since. Lou served on the CMSA board for 12 years as President (7 years), Treasurer (3 years), and as an At-Large director (2 years). He currently serves as the Assistant Treasurer. Lou has attended every convention since 2002 and has been a workshop presenter and the M2 section leader at a number of conventions. Lou has played in the Minnesota Mandolin Orchestra since 2001. Lou has attended numerous classical mandolin clinics and camps. Lou is the perfect example of why enthusiasm and love for music is more important than technical playing skill. He loves introducing new players to the world of classical mandolin and playing in mandolin orchestras.

Brian Oberlin is an internationally acclaimed mandolin player and educator. During his decades long professional career, Brian has been playing swing, bluegrass, and Italian classical as a solo mandolinist and vocalist. When he is not performing, Brian teaches music to children and adults at art centers, cultural events, festivals, camps, music schools and academies. The founder of the Oregon Mandolin Orchestra, Brian recently relocated to his home state of Michigan where is now the director of the Michigan Mandolin Orchestra. At CMSA Kalamazoo Brian will give a workshop on "Arranging Solo Mandolin Pieces from Scratch". Catch him also at the open mics on Thursday and Saturday and sitting in with the host KMGO at their Friday night concert.

Robert Margo is an accomplished performer on mandolin family instruments (liuto cantabile, mandola, and mandolin), classical guitar, and renaissance lute. He studied classical guitar with John Johns (Nashville) and William Newman (Philadelphia), and in masterclasses with Sergio Assad, Manuel Barrueco, and David Starobin. His training on renaissance lute includes lessons with Catherine Liddell, Ronn McFarlane, Christopher Morrongiello, Nigel North, and Paul O'Dette. He has twice been a prize-winner in the Classical Mandolin Society of America's (CMSA) national performance competition.

An avid fan of new music for plucked strings, Margo has commissioned works from Clarice Assad, Philip DeWalt, Jesse Jones, John Goodin, Francine Trester, and Frank Wallace. He frequently writes articles for CMSA's quarterly publication, The Mandolin Journal, and he also serves on the organization's Board of Directors. In addition to performing as a solo artist, His arrangements have been performed by Chris Acquavella, Aurora Mandolin Orchestra, Baltimore Mandolin Quartet, CMSA En Masse Orchestra, Dayton Mandolin Orchestra, East Coast Mandolin Orchestra, London Mandolin Ensemble, New Expressions Mandolin Orchestra, and Plektra (Australia), among others.

Beverly Davis has been involved in plucked string ensembles since the 1980s when she studied classical guitar with Reed Desrosier and performed with the Keene State Guitar Orchestra, one of the first such ensembles in the USA to tour internationally. As President of the Providence Mandolin Orchestra she has organized numerous international tours and also directed the 2001 International Festival of Mandolins in Providence, Rhode Island. She has performed in a duo with Mark Davis since 2001, and as the guitarist in TRIO 868 (two mandolins and guitar). At her home in Connecticut, she helps direct the North Meadow House Concert Series, presenting many important rising stars of the guitar and mandolin world. She continues to play classical guitar with the Providence Mandolin Orchestra, and more recently as a member of the New American Mandolin Ensemble.

Mark Davis has been a central figure in the international revival of classical mandolin since the 1970s. Originally a folk guitarist, Mark began studying classical guitar and mandolin in Providence, RI with Hibbard Perry in the early 1970s. In the late 1970s Davis and Marilyn Mair, another Perry student, formed the Mair-Davis Duo which toured world-wide for the next two decades to great acclaim and made several landmark recordings.

Mark's performing career also includes numerous concert appearances and recordings as a solo artist and ensemble musician, including in duo with Beverly Davis. Mark has made significant and extensive contributions as a music director and conductor, especially his stewardship of the Providence Mandolin Orchestra which he has directed since the mid-1980s. He is also the founder and music director of the New American Mandolin Ensemble and The Hampton Trio. He has been a steadfast advocate of new music for plucked strings, including seminal modern works written for the Mair-Davis Duo, and for the Providence Mandolin Orchestra and other ensembles. Mark has had a life-long commitment to education. This includes the American Mandolin and Guitar Summer School (AMGuSS), which he co-founded and co-directed with Marilyn Mair from the 1980s until the early 2000s; training of individual students; and appearances at CMSA's conventions as a workshop presenter, section leader and En Masse conductor. In 2020 CMSA honored Mark by appointing him to a five-year term as a CMSA non-Presidential Fellow.

Mike Schroeder: A legendary figure in CMSA and a former President of the CMSA, Mike was honored for his contributions to our organization by his appointment as a CMSA Presidential Fellow in the inaugural class of 2019. Mike founded the Louisville Mandolin Orchestra, long one of North America's premier ensembles, and the host orchestra of three previous conventions, tying Baltimore for the record. A superb mandolinist in both classical and non-classical styles, Mike has performed with the Louisville and Knoxville symphonies, and with the groups Cloigheann and Hog Operation. At CMSA Kalamazoo, Mike will co-host a workshop with Jim Bates on the ensemble music of the late John Goodin.

Bob Phillips: Pedagogue, composer, teacher trainer, conductor, and renowned as an innovator in string education. Bob Phillips brings a wealth of knowledge and a sense of humor to his clinics, drawn from his 27 years as a public-school string teacher. He is an expert in the use of large group pedagogy and in the development of alternative styles for strings. One of today's leading educational authors and composers, his books and pieces are performed by thousands of string students each year. He has served as president of the American String Teachers Association and, was inducted into the University of Michigan School of Music Hall of Fame in 2013. At CMSA Kalamazoo, Bob will co-host a workshop with Gean Almendras on "The Mandolin Transition: Bowed Strings to Mandolin Family".

Tom Dietz: The former curator of the Kalamazoo Valley Museum and one of the leading experts on Kalamazoo history, Tom earned his BA and MA degrees in history from Wayne State University in Detroit. He served as curator of urban history at the Detroit Historical Museum from 1984 to 1992, before moving to Kalamazoo to take up the curator position at the Kalamazoo Valley Museum which he held for 22 years until his retirement. A workshop presenter at CMSA Kalamazoo, Tom will give what promises to be a fascinating lecture-presentation on "Orville Gibson and the Birth of the Modern Mandolin."

Gean Vincent Almendras is an Ann Arbor based musician and instructor of mandolin, violin, and Philippine banduria. Gean graduated with degrees in Computer Information Systems and in Music, specializing in classical mandolin performance (under the tutelage of Francesco Cavallini) and a minor in violin; through the University of Michigan. He is also trained in Mariachi style violin and performs with a Mariachi ensemble under the Flint-based folks arts nonprofit, El Ballet Folklorico Estudiantil (EBFE). In 2014, Gean helped start —now Vice-President of — the Philippine Arts & Culture Ensemble of Michigan (PACE-MI); a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing community-based instructional programs and resources through the promotion of Rondalla music, indigenous music, and traditional folk dance. Sitting in with the Kalamazoo Mandolin & Guitar Orchestra (KMGO) every so often since 2016, Gean also founded the Ann Arbor Mandolin & Guitar Orchestra (A2MGO) in 2018. Since 2019, he has worked with string orchestra students from Skyline High School (Ann Arbor, Michigan) conducting several workshops teaching string players how to play their mandolin family equivalents; even helping them start an after-school mandolin orchestra club. While pursuing a Masters of Public Administration in Non-Profit Administration and a Masters of Art specializing in Arts Administration, he is also a course lecturer of Philippine Ensemble Music at the University of Michigan.

Tim Connell: A graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and a virtuoso mandolinist with over twenty-five years professional performing experience, Tim Connell has created a sophisticated and original global style on the mandolin. Regarded as one of the top North American interpreters of Brazilian choro on the mandolin, Tim has also developed his own unique voice for the instrument, described in a Mandolin Magazine cover story as “fiery and energetic, soulful and evocative.” At CMSA Kalamazoo Tim will present his highly successful (and energetic) workshop on “The Roadmap to Mandolin Mastery”. <https://timconnellmusic.com/>

Susan McLaughlin: A life-long resident of Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, with forty-seven years’ experience playing mandolin in a group setting, Susan thought she knew all there was to know about mandolin in her community. So, it came as a shock to learn about Grace Newman, leader of two 1920s Mandolin Clubs in Regina. Putting her research skills and love of history to work, Susan wrote the story of Grace Newman, her band mates, and their meteoric rise to local celebrity status. It was a rewarding journey, with the added benefit of extending the heritage of her own group, the Regina Mandolin Orchestra. Susan’s workshop this week will give you an overview of her journey, and hopefully inspire others to follow suit.

An enthusiastic amateur classical mandolinist, Kat Randolph is a long-time member of the CMSA and of the Seattle Mandolin Orchestra. In 2013 she was the executive producer of the SMO’s CD recording, “Rejoice”. Currently a Vice-President of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion at Microsoft, Kat serves on the board of The Rhapsody Project, a community organization in Seattle that celebrates music and heritage through an anti-racist lens. A devoted practitioner of Yoga and Pilates, Kat will lead early morning sessions each day of the convention, stretching, strengthening, and breathing exercises specifically tailored to building body awareness and good posture for mandolin players. Come join Kat and get in “shape” for En Masse!

"Play your mandolin with confidence and joy!"

- Fluent phrasing
- Smooth tremolo
- Improved sight-reading
- Understand chords
- Learn to improvise

Hi there, I'm Tim Connell - I'm so happy to be with you and our fellow CMSA members in Kalamazoo this week!

I'd like to help you realize your mandolin and musical dreams. To do so, I've designed an effective curriculum for modern, improvising mandolinists just like yourself.

I've made it all accessible to you, along with hundreds of pieces of beautiful repertoire from a variety of genres.

To learn more, just come up and say "Hi" anytime this week - I'd love to talk with you about your mando practice.

And, be sure to sign up for my upcoming free mandolin technique webinar by clicking here or scanning the QR code.

MANDOLIN RECORDINGS! NEW!!!

GLADDiscs

This Fall the company is branching out into recordings for the first time, as the GladDisc label, and there are two releases planned so far:

GladDisc 001 - EARLY ITALIAN MANDOLIN SOLOISTS – Available on CD or as a digital album

26 tracks recorded between 1901 and 1917 by Angelo Alfieri (1864-1925), Guido Volpe, Eduardo Mezzacapo (1870-1942), Salvator Leonardi (1872-1938), Stellario Cambria (1874-1929). and Raffaele Calace (1863-1934). 24 of the 26 tracks have never before been reissued!

GladDisc 002 – NEIL GLADD EP – Available only as a digital album

These 4 tracks include the 3 movement Duetto in D, Op.1, no.3 (1799) for mandolin and violin by Johann Hoffman, and Mandolin Night, written for Neil Gladd in 1985 by composer, Pamela Marshall. These had previously been released on the CD, Mandolin X 4 (1998), which is now out of print.

Order with a credit card or PayPal from the website, or send a check payable to Neil Gladd to:

Announcing CAMW 2023 – June 15-18, 2023 – in Milwaukee

The 21st annual Carlo Aonzo Mandolin Workshop (CAMW) will be held in Milwaukee, WI, June 15-18, 2023. Assistant Conductor Rene Izquierdo will once again join us.

The workshop consists of four days of mandolin orchestra rehearsal, with six hours of instruction each day. The last day includes a recital.

"The best part of the workshop was playing beautiful mandolin orchestra pieces with dedicated people and with Carlo's direction.... It is a rare treat to hear classical mandolin playing of the caliber of Carlo. It is inspiring and expands our minds to the possibilities of the instrument, as well as being so very beautiful."
